

Lecture: Symmetries in algorithmic questions in real algebraic geometry

Speaker: Cordian Riener -- UiT The Arctic University of Norway.

Part I: Symmetries in Semidefinite programming

In the first lecture we will survey how symmetry-reduction can be used to simplify semi-definite programs which are invariant by the action of a group. We will introduce fundamental notions from representation theory and show how this framework can be used to exploit symmetries.